LAW OR THE OUTLAWS, WHICH WILL BE VICTOR

EXODUS TO BEGIN FROM RED LIGHT

Judges Reed's Order of Evacuation Goes Into Effect

TOMORROW

CITATIONS FOR CONTEMPT.

May Issue Against Any Remaining and Continuing Practices on Kentucky Avenue.

WHAT STEPS WILL BE TAKEN.

Tomorrow the question will be decided whether the law and courts of this state or the outlaw dens of Paducah are most potent.

Judge Reed has ordered the demimonde to evacuate Kentucky avenue, and the exodus is set for December 1, when citations for contempt are expected to issue against any who have the temerity to remain on the street and continue their evil practices.

The order says the nuisance must be abated. It does not say the women must leave the street; but it practically yamounts to the same thing.

The probability of their leaving and unwanted activity in building circles, taking the form of additions in the shape of dance halls to modest cottages on the north side, have aroused at least one neighborhood almost to shotgun heat, while painted faces are seen at windows in more than on South Fifth street residence. The whole city seems interested in the outcome of the fight between the circuit court and the red light denizens.

Up to today few of the women have left Kentucky avenue, and it is apparent that the majority of the madams will remain. Whether they will get rid of their white slaves is the question, the order of the court, of course, not going to the extent of making the women move if they abate the nuisance. If they do remain, there is not the least doubt in anyone's mind that in a few weeks, unless the court and the county officers look alive, conditions on Kentucky avenue will be as bad as ever.

Indeed it is hinted that the women have been told this affair is merely an incident, and that if the madams remain quiescent for a little while they may get their girls back and resume their former practices without let or hindrance.

Assignment probably will take the place temporarily of the regular red light resorts.

What Police Say.

The police claim that the women will move, and that no action of the court further than the issuance of the order will be necessary.

How is Judge Reed to know if the women have closed their places, and if violations are reported, how is the Judge to proceed in securing evidence against them? are questions also arousing no little interest.

"You can say that the houses in the 'red light' district will close at 12 o'clock tonight and that will close the matter as far as bawdy houses are concerned," Chief of Police James Collins stated. "I know that the women will obey the instructions of Judge Reed. In fact, all but one or two houses have closed and the women are leaving. Several went to St. Louis yesterday and there will be a few who will be stranded, not having any money. These, they say will apply to the mayor for transportation.

"This is as much as I can learn as to the intentions of the inmates and proprietors, but I know conditions on that street will not be bettered. Frankie Dixon, a negro woman, declares she will open a railroad boarding house. Others allege they will rent to any one who will move in, and have received applications from many negroes."

Sheriff Oglivie's Statement.

"I do not know how we will go about ridding the street of the women or learning whether they have complied with the orders of the court. Papers have not yet been given me to serve," Sheriff John Oglivie stated. "I will serve, of course, any papers given me, but one question that has

AERIAL WARSHIPS PROVEN SUCCESS

Will Be Used By The United States Army.

Secretary Moody's Nomination to the Bench Will Be Confirmed By Senate.

MR. McELHENNY IS ANNOUNCED

Washington, Nov. 30.—Aerial warships armed with explosives more dangerous than any yet heard of will be brought into service by the United States government, is the statement made upon the authority of General Crozier, chief of ordnance, who said: "It would appear we are on the threshold of practical success in aerial navigation. For two years members of the ordnance bureau have been investigating the subject of aerial navigation."

Moody's Appointment.
According to assurances which Attorney-General Moody is receiving from incoming senators, his nomination to the supreme bench probably will be confirmed without reference to a committee.

McElhenny Is Named.
The president today announced the appointment of John McElhenny, of Louisiana, as civil service commissioner to succeed Alfred W. Cooly, resigned. The nomination will be sent to the senate next week.

Rumors of a Fight.
It is rumored that there will be a fight waged by some of the women. They have not stated what they will do, but there are several who own property and have means to carry on a fight. They will, it is said, attack the legality of the court's instructions, and some have already consulted attorneys with a view to fighting the case. It is impossible to get at the true facts and developments must be awaited.

Chief's New Neighbors.
"I feel the result of the circuit judge's order," Chief Collins declared openly this morning. "Two of the women who have lived shady lives have moved next door to me. They bought new furniture and I understand have leased the house for a long term."

Fancy Prices Paid.
When some one was securing or trying to secure options on West Kentucky avenue property, the prices asked were great. In speaking of the dealing Mr. C. E. Jennings, the real estate dealer, stated:

"It is hard to make a trade for this property. The lots and houses were purchased at fancy prices, and would never bring anything like what was paid, if sold for any purpose other than that to which it has been put. For this reason the property will be hard to dispose of unless at a sacrifice."

ENGINE REVERSED

To Avoid Collision, Dashes Madly Back and Kills Two.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 30.—As a Northern Pacific passenger train from St. Paul was entering the yards, a switch engine suddenly backed around the curve at full speed. Both engineers saw the danger and reversed, so that the collision was comparatively slight. The passenger engine was reversed, the crew jumped to save themselves and after the collision the engine bounded back. The throttle was open and it tore back towards the station utterly beyond control. Over the bridge across the river it continued and straight down the main track on which stood the flyer ready for a trip south. They collided and two were killed.

IN WRONG HOUSE.

He Was Killed When Burglar Alarm Went Off.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 30.—Aroused by a burglar alarm Charles Shepard, proprietor of a restaurant, shot and killed Martin Whorton at the door of his bed room at 2 o'clock this morning. It is not known whether Whorton was the burglar or blundered in the house while drinking.

Prepared for War.

Washington, Nov. 30.—In view of the anti-American situation in Japan it is believed to be of considerable significance in the report of Rear Admiral Converse chief of the bureau of navigation, made public today. The necessity of keeping the navy of the United States in condition of full preparedness for war is the keynote of the report.

PRINTING COMMITTEE MEETS HERE DEC. 14. TO RECEIVE REPORT

The state printing committee, of which Hon. Louis P. Head is a member, will meet in Paducah December 14, to receive the report of the sub-committee, amending the state printing laws. There are a score of amendments suggested, but aside from increasing and defining the duties of the state printer, the principal change is the removal of the maximum price and the placing of the state printing on a strictly competitive basis, the printing going to the lowest responsible bidder. The specifications for state printing also are more certainly defined in the report. The committee will not finish its work at this session.

TAKES DAUGHTER AWAY FROM SCHOOL

Mother-In-Law Sues Out Writ of Habeas Corpus

Trouble Between J. R. Johnson and Mrs. Ann Raper Gets Into Courts—Has Filed.

EACH NOW HAS ONE GIRL.

Smarting from force used by Mrs. Ann Raper in ejecting him from her home, 308 Ashbrook avenue, where he had gone to secure his two children, Joe R. Johnson, a telegraph operator of White Plains, Ky., coaxed his daughter Stella, aged 10, from school, went to the depot and left Paducah before service in a writ of habeas corpus proceedings could be had. The grandmother, Mrs. Raper, took out the writ.

Johnson has been twice married. The daughters, Stella and Blanche, by his first wife, have been living with their grandmother. Johnson wanted them and came in person on Wednesday to secure them, Mrs. Raper refused to let the girls go, and Johnson would not leave the house until she forced him to.

Johnson came to the city, interviewed an attorney but did not proceed with a writ of habeas corpus as advised. Instead his anger was aroused and going to the McKinley school coaxed his daughter to go with him to the depot.

Tom Gill assisted them in getting to the depot, and yesterday morning father and daughter left for White Plains. As soon as his action was discovered, Mrs. Raper applied for a writ of habeas corpus and the summons were placed in the hands of Deputy Constable Jim Flournoy. At 6 o'clock last night he found Gill, who was also summoned, having aided Johnson to escape. Gill informed Flournoy that his man had gone.

THREE SQUARES

OF RAILS OF NINETEENTH ST. BY SATURDAY.

Rapid Work Being Done on New Street Car Line—Grading and Culverts Under Way.

The traction company is making great headway with the work on Nineteenth street and has a great part of the street graded. Contractor George Weikle is preparing to put in a culvert between Broadway and Kentucky avenue, and all will be put in readiness for laying rails immediately. It was stated by a foreman of the Columbia Construction company which is putting in the rails, that three squares of track will be laid by Saturday. Broadway will not be touched until Nineteenth street is completed.

LOCKED IN BOX CAR; CARRIED TO FULTON

Three Little Boys are Almost Famished On Trip.

Parents Search for Them While They Are Whisked Across Country By Freight.

SAID THEY WERE HUNTING.

After spending nearly 24 hours locked in a box car, James Wilkes, 14 years old, Terry Tucker, 12 years old, and Robert Duke, 11 years old, of this city, were rescued Thursday morning in Fulton and sent home. The boys started out Wednesday morning, hunting, as they told their parents. They climbed into an empty box car in the Illinois Central yards, bound for Florence Station. The car was going too fast to get off. At Mayfield a sudden jolt sent the door shut with a bang, and the boys could not budge it. Furthermore they were afraid to cry out lest they might be arrested.

At Fulton they were set on an isolated track. They fear overcame discretion and they cried and pounded. It was sheer good fortune that brought a yardmaster within earshot of the hubbub and he released the little prisoners.

In the meantime their parents had been wild with anxiety and searched everywhere they could think of without turning up a clew. The boys are sons of L. A. Wilkes, Ninth and Jones streets; Robert Tucker, 706 Eleventh street, and Mrs. Lula Duke, 713 Eleventh street.

Fight in Brookport.

"Doc" Taylor and a fellow named Blackad, both colored, engaged in a fight in front of "Cap McCawley's saloon in Brookport yesterday afternoon and Blackad struck Taylor on the head with a bottle. Taylor shot at Blackad, and both were arrested and held to the grand jury.

ON MAIN LINE

TRAIN ARE MADE UP ON THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL.

Yard Tracks Jammed Full of Cars and Extra Switch Crews Are Kept Busy.

Cars were driven into the local I. C. yards like wedges last night and the yards were securely blocked for the first time in months, necessitating the making up of freight trains on the main line. Every switch engine possible to bring into service was used last night and extra switchmen taken on to relieve the congested condition. The blockade was caused by the great amount of freight being moved from the south where delayed by washouts, and delayed freight from the north going south. Even Cairo is sending a lot of freight via Paducah.

HUNTERS SUCCESSFUL.

Hundreds of Birds and Rabbits Brought to City.

The train from Cairo arriving in Paducah at 7:30 o'clock last night was dubbed the "game trains." If all the game brought in by the half hundred hunters who returned on that train was piled in one heap, it would have filled several piano boxes. Every hunter was satisfied with his luck, carrying from 10 to 40 birds, rabbits and squirrels.

Magoon Wishes New Deal.
Havana, Nov. 30.—Governor Magoon will ask for the resignations of all senators and representatives elected at the last election. In case resignations are refused he says he will declare the election illegal and the seats of members elected vacant.

Iowans Easily Defeated.

St. Louis, Nov. 30.—St. Louis University defeated the Iowa University team by a score of 39 to 0, in one of the most exciting football games played here this season. The game was marked throughout by fair, clean work on both sides, but from the start St. Louis clearly outplayed her Iowa opponents, making a touchdown within the first six minutes.

TWO MORE RAILROADS COME TO METROPOLIS

Burlington and Big Four Seek Outlet to Gulf and L. & N. Good Northern Connections.

Authentic Report Circulated That Construction Work Will Commence Early In The Spring

WHAT THE EXTENSION WILL MEAN

Metropolis, Ill., Nov. 30.—(Special)—Metropolis is taking on something like a boom, new factories have come, old ones expanded, and the population increased so much in the last year that there are not sufficient houses to accommodate all the people. Railroad talk has had much to do with promoting the boom, and real estate values are higher than ever before in the history of the town, while transfers of property, especially the last two weeks, have broken all previous records.

It now seems certain that Metropolis, and Paducah, too, will have two more railroads by next summer—the Burlington and the Big Four. Both roads have been surveying in this direction all summer and a report from no less authentic source than Chicago headquarters, says that at a meeting held there November 21, the officials decided to extend their lines from Harrisburg, Ill., 50 miles north of here, to Metropolis. These surveys have included sounding the river for a bridge

This little extension of 50 miles from Harrisburg and the bridge to be built jointly, connecting the north and southern trunk lines at Paducah, solves the problem of three great railroad systems.

Ten Percent Advance In Wages Is Received By American Expressmen

Five employees of the American Express company in this city will have an unexpected addition to their Christmas money. The ten per cent increase in salaries of employees who have been working for the company a year and have not received an advance in that time, went into effect November 15, and the payroll received today shows the increase. In a letter from headquarters it is stated that the directors realized how prosperous the year's business had been, and as they felt free to cut salaries during hard times, they wished the employees to understand that all were to share the benefits of good times.

COW BOY EARL

Mrs. CAREY AWAITED ACTION OF CORONER.

Detective Only Witness at Preliminary Hearing Before Police Magistrate.

Philadelphia, Nov. 30.—Mrs. Mary Carey, who was arrested last night on suspicion of having caused the death of two other persons by poison, was today given a hearing before a police magistrate and committed to prison to await the action of the coroner's jury. Mrs. Carey and her family formerly resided at Centralia, Pa., and came to this city about a year ago. The police officials claim Mrs. Carey held insurance policies on the lives of all those whom she is suspected of killing and for the purpose of securing this money which aggregated about $1,000 the crimes were committed.

DISTINGUISHED WAISTCOATS

"Distinguished"—that's the word to apply to our Waistcoats. They not only fit the way a man wants a vest to fit him, but are "chock" full of those noticeable things in style which distinguishes them from the ordinary kind.

Especial attention is called to the new single-breasted gray Broadcloth Vest, made with five buttons and without collar, the two lower pockets having flaps, which add materially to the beauty of this striking style. Prices within the limit of all—$5.00

Another style which we wish to bring to your notice is a flannel with alternate wide gray and white stripes. This style is made with only two pockets, has five neat pearl buttons, and on the large flaps of the pocket there is also a pearl button. Price $6.00.

We know these styles will please you and we wish you to notice them if you pass our windows. Others from $1.50 to $10.00.

FOOTPAD ACCSTS AGED MINISTER

Car Comes In Sight Just In Time To Save Him

The Rev. G. W. Latham, of Mayfield, Gets Lost and Has an Adventure.

"HOW MUCH MONEY HAVE YOU?"

Trembling with excitement from being accosted by a half drunken negro footpad the Rev. G. W. Latham, a minister of Mayfield, Ky., boarded a South Sixth street car just in time to escape being robbed last night at 10 o'clock. He had become lost, and in trying to find his son's home was followed by the negro. The car coming at a convenient time saved him from being molested.

The Rev. Mr. Latham is the father of James T. Latham, of Sixth street, just south of Caldwell street extended. Last night he preached at the mission on South Third street. Taking a car home he rounded the bend into Sixth street off Broad street and asked to be put off near Caldwell street. The street car conductor put him off too far north. He tried to find his way back, and noticed a negro following him.

"How much money have you got, and where are you going?" the negro inquired approaching the aged minister.

Before the minister replied a car came in sight. The negro disappeared into the darkness and Mr. Latham boarded the car. He stated that he was sure the negro meant harm, and would have robbed him had the car not come at the opportune time.

Already the disagreeable aftermath of high water is beginning to appear, as the receding river leaves muddy banks. The river fell 1.3 at this point in the last 24 hours, the stage this morning being 30.7. Business was rushing at the wharf this morning after the holiday.

The Kentucky arrived late last night with the biggest trip that boat has had in a long time; 1,700 sacks of peanuts, 1,300 sacks of cotton seed and 11 cars of lumber. The cotton seed was consigned to Cairo and was transferred to the Dick Fowler at the wharf.

The Dick Fowler, not having made a trip yesterday, had a big trip this morning for Cairo.

Markle's show boat arrived last night from Cairo to go into winter quarters here.

The Georgia Lee will arrive Saturday from Cincinnati on the down trip to Memphis.

Sunday four of the biggest tow-boats and coal tugs on the Ohio river will pass Paducah on their way south. In this fleet towing many millions of bushels of coal, will be the Sprague, Williams, Clarke and Fulton. They are coming down one behind the other.

The Chattanooga will arrive from Louisville Saturday on its way to Chattanooga, Tenn. The Chattanooga will enter the Cairo-Chattanooga trade.

"Ring," one of the wharfboat pet dogs, came back yesterday on the John Hopkins from New Liberty after a visit of two months. Ring took a notion to leave two months ago and walked onto the Henry Harley. Probably to celebrate Thanksgiving with his old friends, he returned yesterday. Ring never did like Captain Brown, the wharfmaster, and the first thing he did yesterday was to snap at that gentleman.

The Lydia left for the Tennessee river yesterday after a tow of tugs. Most of the boats are headed this way with tugs now.

CORN IS THE KING OF AGRICULTURE

Crop Estimated By Secretary At Billion Dollars.

Farmers Still Lead Manufacturers as Wealth Producers in This Country.

FAST BECOMING A SCIENCE. ALL THE PASSENGERS ESCAPE.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson in his annual report to the president, made public today, says that much progress has been made by the farmers in the sciences and arts of agriculture, aided by the researches of the department and its experiment stations, and states that "the time of the man and the yield of the acre become more responsive as more imperative demands are made on them."

The farm products of the year have a value of very nearly six thousand eight hundred million dollars, nearly half a billion above the value of 1905 and exceeding by over two billion dollars the figures for the last census.

Corn Is King.

Corn remains by far the most valuable crop, estimated at $1,000,000,000. Next comes the cotton crop, which, including seed, should be worth to the growers nearly $640,000,000. The value of hay, third in order, approaches $600,000,000. Wheat, the fourth, may be worth $450,000,000; oats, $300,000,000; potatoes, $150,000,000. Barley with a value of $65,000,000, shows a gain of 21 per cent in production in the past seven years. The tobacco crop will be worth about $55,000,000. A remarkable development is that of the sugar beet, now the ninth crop value. The production in 1906 is placed at three hundred and forty-five thousand tons, valued at $34,000,000. Seven years ago, the value of this crop was $7,000,000. The value of all kinds of sugar, syrup and molasses aggregates $75,000,000.

The farm still overshadows the mill, the factory and the workshop in providing exports, and with his surplus beyond the nation's need the farmer has loaded the fleets of oceans. For the fiscal year this surplus has been exported to the value of $976,000,000, the largest amount ever reached by agricultural exports for this or any other country and exceeding the export value of 1901, previously the record year. Among chief exports cotton maintains a long lead, with a value of $400,000,000. The packing house products exported amounted to the value of $207,000,000.

Goods Imported.

The imports of agricultural products consist mainly of the same articles year after year, and reached their highest value in 1906—$554,000,000. These included packing house products, sugar and molasses, coffee, silk, vegetable fibers, wool, tobacco, fruits and forest products.

Agricultural exports exceeded similar exports by $433,000,000, while products of all other industries excepted a balance in our favor of only $85,000,000.

Operator Blamed.

Who is to blame for the accident has not yet been determined. The Jacksonville express had the right of way in the block and the engine broke away from its train and proceeded two miles, one of which was beyond Lawyers, before the engineer noticed that he was without his train. It may be that when he passed Lawyers the operator gave Rangoon a clear block without noticing whether the rear end markers were to be seen before he did so.

In the absence of an official statement excepting that the operator at Rangoon was at fault, that statement is being accepted here. It is reported here that D. J. Maddux, the operator at Rangoon has disappeared.

Will Investigate.

Washington, Nov. 30.—The Southern railway has started a vigorous investigation in to the responsibility for the disaster at Lamers, Va., Thanksgiving morning, which resulted in the death of President Spencer and his hunting trip guests. As is stated the fault rests solely with the operators either at Lawyers or Rangoon.

ALWAYS WAS SICK.
When I was young, I always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup? It exists in 100,000,000 bottles. Denver, Col., writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me."

SEVEN VICTIMS ON THE SOUTHERN

Details of Wreck in Which Spencer Is Killed.

Operator Blamed for Catastrophe Disappears from Rangoon Station, Virginia.

ALL THE PASSENGERS ESCAPE.

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 30.—Seven is now said to be the total number of deaths as a result of the collision on the Southern railroad yesterday.

PRESIDENT SAMUEL SPENCER, of New York City.

CHARLES D. FISHER, of Baltimore.

PHILIP SCHUYLER, of New York City.

FRANCIS T. REDWOOD, of Baltimore.

D. W. DAVIS, of Alexandria, Va., private dispatcher to President Spencer.

WILLIAM POLLARD, a negro porter on the Spencer car.

AN UNKNOWN PERSON, whose head and limbs were burned off, believed to be third porter on the private car, who is missing.

Asleep When Death Came.

President Spencer and his entire party as far as is known, were sleeping when the collision occurred, and the probabilities are all excepting that the Spencer car was killed instantly. It is certain life was extinct before the flames touched them. Spencer's body was burned almost beyond recognition as was that of Fisher.

Schuyler's body was taken from under the train before it was much burned, having been singed only slightly. Spencer's car was attached to the rear of the Jacksonville train which was standing still when it was struck.

Spencer's body was lying directly under the locomotive of the rear train.

So great was the force of the impact that the forward train was sent at least 150 feet ahead, the locomotive going over and upon the body of Spencer. Until after the debris had burned itself out and the engine cooled off, the bodies could not be removed.

Passengers' Escape Miraculous.

The impact drove the combination car forward and the express car lifted up together with its trucks and crushed the car forty feet away, leaving the remainder of the car strewn with tons of baggage and colored passengers who were pushed back like rats as the express car crushed through the combination car. How the negro passengers in this compartment escaped, none of them being killed, is beyond explanation.

The wreck occurred on the crest of a steep grade when the Atlanta train could not have been running at more than 30 miles an hour. Had it been a mile or so further south, the number of dead might have been frightful, as the condition in the grade there would have meant a speed of more than 60 miles an hour.

Operator Blamed.

Who is to blame for the accident has not yet been determined. The Jacksonville express had the right of way in the block and the engine broke away from its train and proceeded two miles, one of which was beyond Lawyers, before the engineer noticed that he was without his train.

It may be that when he passed Lawyers the operator gave Rangoon a clear block without noticing whether the rear end markers were to be seen before he did so.

In the absence of an official statement excepting that the operator at Rangoon was at fault, that statement is being accepted here. It is reported here that D. J. Maddux, the operator at Rangoon has disappeared.

Will Investigate.

Washington, Nov. 30.—The Southern railway has started a vigorous investigation in to the responsibility for the disaster at Lamers, Va., Thanksgiving morning, which resulted in the death of President Spencer and his hunting trip guests. As is stated the fault rests solely with the operators either at Lawyers or Rangoon.

ALWAYS WAS SICK.
When I was young, I always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say he never was sick since using Ballard's Horehound Syrup? It exists in 100,000,000 bottles. Denver, Col., writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horehound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me."

Daily Thought.

From evil-speaking to evil-doing is only a step."

"The mills of God grind slowly,

"But they grind exceeding fine."

Which lines are appreciated by certain "land barons" of the northwest, who after years of undisputed possession of valuable timber and mineral tracts, worth millions of dollars, must surrender their holdings, and, who knows, perhaps their liberty. Every dog has his day. This is the era of humanitarianism and the small thief is getting off with an indeterminate sentence in a house of correction, while the big thief is attracting undesired attention. Once we saw a farce called "The Police Court," in which the judge is portrayed as weeping lugubrious tears over the lawyer's appeal for a "yeowho cracked a safe, and sending the boy, who stole a loaf of bread for his starving, widowed mother, to the penitentiary. That caricatured public sentiment of another day, but a revision has come over the national conscience. The man who cracks a safe, and even the desperate villain who holds one up at the point of a revolver or breaks into your house in the night time, braves certain dangers himself and matches his wits against your wits. There is no deception about his purpose, he merely takes advantage of the hour and place. The thief who connives with public officials to take for himself something that belongs to another without apparent risk, commits a sordid crime the principal element of which is falsehood and treachery.

We can imagine a first-class cracksman taking pride in his skill; but the land thief and his fellows have no interest in their operations save gain. The burglar enters on his crime full knowing the risk he takes and its consequences. Had the land thieves owned the least inkling of what is now certain to come, they would have hesitated. They are cowardly as well as treacherous and deceitful, and they may expect no mercy from public sentiment.

Democratic newspapers in Kentucky are significantly alarmed over the possibility of Justice Harlan being the Republican nominee for governor, and they are devoting columns to the boomerang of other candidates.

It sounds odd to hear Democratic editors sing the virtues of Republican leaders, but they might as well be given to understand that every other candidate is suggested on the condition that Justice Harlan does not accept. The Owensboro Messenger speaks of Justice Harlan as the candidate of the "Aristocrats of the Republican party." If it is an aristocracy of brains and virtue to which the Messenger alludes, Justice Harlan is the candidate of the aristocracy of all parties.

DEATHS OF A DAY

Ephraim P. Weeks.

Mr. E. P. Weeks, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Paducah, died last night at 9:30 o'clock, at his home, 503 North Fourth street, of infirmities incidental to old age. He had been in failing health and death was not unexpected. He was born January 10, 1829, at Dover, Tenn., where he spent his early youth. When he grew up he went into the general merchandise business in Paducah, Tenn. Seventeen years ago he removed to Paducah and established with his sons, John and William Weeks, a wholesale grocery. After the death of his sons, he disposed of the business and became identified with the Fooks-Acre Lumber company, and was president of the company at death. He was married January 27, 1853, to Mrs. Mary J. Acree, who died February, 1904. The following relatives survive: Mrs. Frank B. Smith and Miss Sarah A. Weeks, of Paducah; daughters: W. C. and J. H. Weeks, Dover, Tenn.; brothers: Roy W. McKinney, Miss Mabel Weeks and Earl Weeks, of Paducah, are grand-children.

Mr. Weeks was an example of a successful business man, and not a more popular or respected citizen could be found. He was a good churchman, a member of the Broadway Methodist Episcopal church, and lived a quiet life. He belonged to no lodges, being a man of constant application to his business which was second to none in western Kentucky.

The funeral services will be held at the Broadway Methodist church Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. W. T. Boiling officiating. The burial will be in Oak Grove cemetery.

The honorary pall-bearers are: B. H. Scott, L. B. Ogilvie, J. K. Bondurant, J. W. McKnight, E. W. Baker, and W. F. Paxton, and the acting pall-bearers: J. S. Ross, J. P. Smith, A. B. Livingston, R. D. Clements, George Rouse, Hood Bryant.

Mrs. Jane Vance.

Mrs. Jane Vance, aged 91 years, died at Maxon Mills last night. She leaves many relatives in that locality. The funeral will be conducted this afternoon at the Bayou church.

Lives Were Lost in a Hurricane That Destroyed the Town of Tutupé.

San Francisco, Nov. 30.—James Donnell, a coffee planter, who arrived here yesterday on the steamer Juan from Guatemala, tells of the destruction of the little town of Tutupé during a hurricane which recently ravaged the neighboring coast. Tutupé lies in an out-of-the-way part of Tehuantepec and its population amounts to about 5,000. When the hurricane was at its height the town was inundated by a rise in the river on which it is situated, and all the buildings were washed away.

It is known that fully 50 people were drowned.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO WAIT.

These damp days are hard on people afflicted with rheumatism, and relief is sought in all sorts of remedies.

There is no doubt in the minds of people who have suffered with the dread disease and those who have studied it closely that probably more relief can be secured from the Osteopathic treatment than any other.

Of course, some chronic cases won't yield to any treatment, but instances of cases of seven and eight years' standing yielding to three months' treatments can be cited. If you are suffering from rheumatism, I should like to discuss your case with you, examine you and tell you what I can do for you. With the dry hot air treatment that I use with osteopathy I am having very gratifying success with people you know well.

TONY TIES

50c

They are tony, too, these 50c ties of ours; you'll say so yourself when you see our window display. Yesterday we received the first installment of Holiday Neckwear and it is beautiful. The colorings range from delicate pastel shades to the rich, warm hues of autumn. Especially noteworthy in the four-in-hands are the new Wood-Brown overshots, various tones of red, green, blue and gray. In the Granitones—a new one—there are sixty colors to select from. In clubs we are showing the various widths of graduated ties and batwings—grays, green, red, myrtle and black. Some of the grays and blacks have a self-embroidered end, which is very striking.

This is one of the most attractive showings of 50c neckwear we have ever made and as the patterns are confined, it would be well to make an immediate selection.

MRS. BASSETT ON STAND.

Begins Her Defense in Famous Divorce Case.

Washington, Nov. 30.—It was Mrs. Fanny Rice Bassett's turn in Equity court today, and she entered an emphatic denial of the charges preferred against her by Charles C. Bassett, of the United States geological survey, in his suit for divorce, in which Rev. E. Lawrence Brown, formerly Washington clergymen, is named as co-respondent. She caps her disclaimer with this assertion:

"I have not in my own mind, formulated anything that I could call love, nor would I have anything in mind, anything of that kind toward any man while I am still the wife of another."

Mrs. Bassett was asked why she did not inform her husband of the fact that the child Lawrence was born, and answered "Because it was none of his business. He had forfeited all right to know anything about myself or my children."

People and Pleasant Events

Pretty Thanksgiving Wedding.

A wedding characterized by the charm of beauty and simplicity was that of Miss Minnie T. Souder and Mr. Charles R. Hall, which took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Illinois Central hospital, with which the bride has been connected for six years. Rev. W. E. Cave, D. D., performed the ceremony and only the most intimate friends of the couple were present.

The parlors were most attractively decorated, the pale green tinted walls being a charming tone for the graceful southern smilax, palms and ferns used. A tall pyramid of ferns was artistically arranged as an effective background for the wedding ceremony.

The bride looked very lovely in a pretty creation of white Brussels net over white silk, elaborately trimmed in lace, with a white silk girdle. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and ferns. The only attendant was the best man, Mr. Thomas B. Harrison.

An informal reception followed the ceremony and delightful ices and cakes were served. The ices were blocks of white cream and the crème de menthe sherbet, and the individual cakes were iced in green with white roses, carrying out the white and green color motif. Bundles of tiny green stick candy tied with white ribbon were pretty souvenirs.

Many beautiful and appropriate gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Hall, who left at 6 p.m. for a southern bridal tour.

The bride's going-away gown was a brown tailored suit with hat to harmonize.

On their return they will be at home at 433 North Fifth street.

Among the out-of-town guests present for the wedding were Misses Waugh, Perkin, Lockett and Echelon, of St. Louis, connected with the Nurses' school in St. Louis, where the bride was prior to coming to Paducah.

Louisville Wedding.

The Louisville Times says of a wedding that took place there Thanksgiving day, the bride and groom of which are now the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Barney P. Kavanaugh, of North Ninth street, Paducah:

The wedding of Miss Josephine Hoerz, the daughter of Mr. Jacob Hoerz, and Mr. A. Barrett was solemnized at 9 o'clock at St. Mary Magdalen's church, Father William Gausepohl officiating.

The bride's sister, Miss Margaret Hoerz, was maid of honor and her only attendant.

Messrs. Thomas Lee, Cornelia Durrett, Robert Plisen and Anthony Durrett were the ushers.

The church was decorated in white chrysanthemums, palms and ferns. The bride wore a lace robe over white silk.

The maid of honor wore a gown of old rose silk.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Fred Harig, rendered the following program:

Bridal Chorus, (Lohengrin) Kyrie,

Sanctus Benedictus and Agnus Dei from Gounod's Messe Solennelle.

Offertory, Trio Ave Maria (Owens.)

Traumfeier (Schumann.)

Wedding March of Mendelssohn."

Davis-Goad.

The marriage of Mr. Averitt E. Davis, of Paducah, and Miss Minnie Ophelia Goad, of Lone Oak, was quietly solemnized last evening at 6 o'clock by the Rev. Calvin Thompson of the First Baptist church at his home on Madison street. The only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wilson, friends of the couple.

The bride was handsomely gowned in a white silk dress trimmed in point lace.

Mr. Davis is a popular attache of the Smith-Scott Tobacco company and has many friends in the city.

His bride is an attractive young lady, the daughter of Mr. J. W. Goad, of Lone Oak, and is popular both in Paducah and the county. They will be at home to their friends on Hampton avenue.

Out of Town Couple Marry.

Mr. M. G. Wilson and Miss Agnes Davis, of Cunningham, Ky., were married yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. Calvin Thompson of the First Baptist church in the parsonage parlors. The couple was accompanied to Paducah by Mr. E. G. Ross and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Davis and the Misses Davis, the parents and sisters of the bride.

Thanksgiving Dance.

The biggest dance of the season was that of Messrs. Clarence Householder and George Holliday at the Red Men's hall last evening. One hundred and eighteen couples were on the floor. Dancing was enjoyed until 8 o'clock this morning. An elaborate lunch followed the dance.

A Touch Down!

Yes, the College Days Cigar has scored a success from the outset.

It has become the steady companion of a large proportion of the college men, young professional men and business men wherever they have learned of its merits.

It has the unusual quality at a low price to deserve this—to command it.

College Days CIGAR, 6 for 25c.

No such cigar quality has ever been sold in ordinary cigar stores even at 5c. straight before.

It's only the National Cigar Stands' plan that makes College Days possible at this price.

The best cigars are now sold in the 2,000 Drug Stores having the National Cigar Stands' Emblem in the window.

In the ordinary heater the draft enters the front, passes up through the fire and out the flue at the top. In this way only about 60 per cent of the burnable properties of your fuel are consumed, the rest passes up the flue unburned in the form of gases and smoke. In the WILSON HEATER the Hot Blast Down-Draft enters from the top, circulates throughout and over the fire and produces perfect combustion, which consumes all of the burnable elements in your fuel; thus the Wilson will give you 40 per cent more heat with a given amount of soft coal than any other heater, or in other words, your fuel bill will be reduced 40 per cent.

Is this worth considering?

HIGH SCHOOL IS LOCAL CHAMPION

Culley Crosses Her Goal Line For First Time.

Evenly Matched Teams Played Thanksgiving and Brilliant Plays Abounded.

HOW THE GAME WAS PLAYED.

According to the rules of the game, the High school won yesterday's football game from the R. L. C.'s with a score of 6 to 5. But for an offside play the High school would have won the game with a score of 11 to 5. The feature of the game was the surprising quality of work done by the R. L. C.'s. Taking everything into consideration before the game, competent judges predicted a victory for the High school, who with their superior knowledge of the game and better opportunity for practice, seemed to have an advantage.

If anything, the R. L. C.'s had a slight superiority in weight, but when all advantages on both sides are weighed, the two teams were evenly matched. The other features of the game were three brilliant runs which netted two touchdowns, one for each team, and the third, made by the High school, was the one which justified the statement made in the opening paragraph.

Only one of the touchdowns was made by straight playing. Two were made on errors by the opposing team, but that does not detract from the fine work in taking advantage of those errors. In the first touchdown, Quarterback Sights for the R. L. C.'s punted, but Fisher for the High school broke through the line, caught the ball and in a brilliant dash of 25 yards, crossed the line for the first touchdown of the game, 17 minutes after the play began.

The second touchdown was made by Bower for the R. L. C.'s, setting the ball on an error, but his dash was for 40 yards.

The last and finest play of the game was made when the High school punted and Bagby of that team, broke through the Culley interference, beat them to the ball and carried it over for a clean touchdown, but an off-side play by Culley's made the play void.

There is considerable divergence of opinions on the point, whether Bagby got the ball before he crossed the line, but this opinion is that he did do so.

The work of Quarterback Sights for the R. L. C.'s in directing his team in interference and in tackling deserves special mention. Fisher did the star work on the High school side and St. John played a fine game throughout. Quarterback Halley for the High school team, showed a clear head in critical moments. By fast playing the R. L. C.'s carried the ball to the High school 7 yard line, then Halley with his entire team rallied and by punting and good end runs, carried the ball down to Culley's 3 yard line, where an error gave the ball to Culley's when a touchdown by the High school was certain.

In a football game as in a battle, the glory falls on the leaders in the action, but continuing the simile, the men playing the less conspicuous places in yesterday's game, like the soldiers in the line, bore their responsibilities signal well. Cope and Coburn for Culley's and both Culley's were fined once for off side play, and twice for hurdling in the first half. The High school was warned about rough work. It was evident that the High school was improving its play as the half advanced.

A punt by Quarterback Sights was blocked by the High school. Fisher breaking through and securing the ball, which he carried over for the first and only touchdown in the first half. Halley kicked the goal and the score was 6 to 0 in favor of the High school.

Culley's kicked off to the High school. Culley's made some gains by mass plays through the line, and Sights secured the ball and started toward the goal, but was tackled in fine style by Halley. His gain of 15 yards did not count because he secured the ball from one of his own men.

Fisher made gains on end runs.

Coburn, Sights and Cope for Culley's doing good tackling in defensive work.

High school went through the line and the interference accorded its runners was good.

Punting was renewed on both sides, and one sharp gain by the High school did not count, because the ball was punted after it had touched the ground. The first half ended with neither team playing well.

Culley's kicked off to the High school's 30 yard line. St. John punted the ball back to Culley's 35 yard line, but Culley's brought the ball steadily toward the High school goal and Bower in a brilliant dash of 40 yards after getting the ball on a fumble, crossed the line for Culley's first touchdown. If Coburn had kicked the goal the score would have been tied, but he failed to do so, and the score was 6 to 5.

High school kicked off. Both teams were playing hard now, the interference for either side was excellent and the spectators, who had kept off the field held back by wires erected before the game, disregarded this obstruction in their enthusiasm.

Punting by Culley's and all around fast work kept the High school active and the latter team lost ground on several fumbles. Punting by Sights carried Culley's down to the High school 7 yard line, and the same tac-

THIS DRUGGIST'S EXPERIENCE

Should Interest Paducah People.

Mr. Jos. F. Bradley, a prominent druggist of New Brunswick, N. J., writes: "I have sold Vinol, the cod liver preparation without oil, for the past three years, and it has given perfect satisfaction.

"I now use Vinol in my family and can highly recommend it. It is always a pleasure to recommend a medicine that I have found to be first-class."

The reason Vinol is so fast super-seding and so far superior to old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions is because it contains all of the medicinal, body-building elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, with all of the useless and nauseating oil eliminated and tonic iron added.

Vinol makes pure, rich, red blood. It is delicious to take and the weak stomach can retain it.

As a body-builder, and strength creator for old people, weak women delicate children, after sickness, and for all pulmonary diseases Vinol is recommended by over 5,000 of the leading druggists of the United States. Your money back if it does not do all we claim for it. W. B. McPherson, Druggist.

ends for the High school did spectacular interference work and tackling.

There was only one accident, when Elliott, fullback on Culley's had his right shoulder strained, necessitating his withdrawal from the game and the substitution of Owen.

How the Game Was Played.

High school kicked off to Culley's. Culley's lost the ball on a fumble but a bad punt by St. John gave them the ball again. For several minutes both teams pursued punting tactics, carrying the ball first up and then down the field. Both teams were playing the same quality of ball.

Elliott was knocked out in a mass play and Owen was substituted, and the substitute being a lighter man hurt Culley's somewhat. Neither team made big gains through the line. St. John made several gains on end runs for 10 or 15 yards, but a fumble while executing a trick play, gave Culley's the ball.

Culley's were fined once for off side play, and twice for hurdling in the first half. The High school was warned about rough work. It was evident that the High school was improving its play as the half advanced.

A punt by Quarterback Sights was blocked by the High school. Fisher breaking through and securing the ball, which he carried over for the first and only touchdown in the first half. Halley kicked the goal and the score was 6 to 0 in favor of the High school.

Punting by Culley's and all around fast work kept the High school active and the latter team lost ground on several fumbles. Punting by Sights carried Culley's down to the High school 7 yard line, and the same tacties by St. John carried the High school back to the center of the field. The High school team was swift here, gains by Fisher and St. John advancing the High school team. St. John tried to kick a goal from the field and the High school got the ball. Great end runs were made here by High school halves the ball being carried sharply ahead and the ball went to Culley's on their 3 yard line.

Culley's punted at this dangerous point, carrying the ball back down the field. High school punted. Bagby beat Culley's to the ball which he caught before it had crossed the line, and carried it over for a touchdown, but an off-side play by Culley's made the fine work of no avail.

With only one minute of play left, nothing was accomplished by either team, and time was called with the score 6 to 5 in favor of the High school.

The Culley team deserves a great deal of credit for the work in the game yesterday and in its other games. The team is composed of young men who work during the day so that their only time for practice has been at night, which militated against them to quite an extent. Mr. John Brooks coached and managed the team.

Rudy was referee, Well, umpire Puryear and Wilcox timekeepers. Time of halves, 25 and 20 minutes. A good crowd saw the game and the enthusiasm was keen.

Cornell-Pennsy Nothing.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 30.—With the ball within one yard of the home team's goal line, the annual game between the Pennsylvania and the Cornell elevens on Franklin field today ended without either side scoring. The finish of the contest, with Pennsylvanians fighting desperately to ward off defeat, was as sensational a piece of football playing as has been seen here in a long time. Cornell twice had the ball, in those last few minutes within one yard of Pennsylvania's line and victory appeared certain, but the Philadelphia men held her each time, by defense was as impregnable as it was sensational.

Doubtless you have heard of the Bumper Crops which have been raised this year in Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Texas and New Mexico. Have you compared them with results obtained in your section? Is your work where you are, bringing you adequate returns for the capital invested and the labor expended? If not, a change would be beneficial perhaps. A visit to the Southwest will open your eyes. Out in Oklahoma the last big land opening is soon to take place; farms are still very cheap in Western Arkansas, Northern Louisiana and the Gulf Coast of Texas. Let us give you full information about these sections. You will want to see them after you have examined our illustrated literature.

THE REFUGEES

By A. CONAN DOYLE.
Author of "The Return of Sherlock Holmes"

COPYRIGHT, 1895, BY HARPER & BROTHERS

During the half hour or so which had been occupied in this manner there had been a constant opening and closing of the chamber door, and a muttering of names from the captain of the guard to the attendant in charge, and from the attendant in charge to the first gentleman of the chamber, ending always in the admission of some new visitor. Here, close by the king, was the harsh but energetic Louvois, all powerful now since the death of his rival Colbert, discussing a question of military organization with two officers, the one a tall and stately soldier, the other a strange little figure, undersized and misshapen, but bearing the insignia of a marshal of France, and owning a name which was of evil omen over the Dutch frontier, for Luxembourg was looked upon already as the successor of Conde, even as his companion Vauban was of Turenne. Beside them a small white-haired clerical with a kindly face, Pere la Chaise, to the king, was whispering his views upon Jansenism to the portly Bossuet, the eloquent bishop of Meaux. Close to the door Racine, with his handsome face wreathed in smiles, was chatting with the poet Boileau and the architect Mansard, the three laughing and jesting with the freedom which was natural to the favorite servants of the king.

"He becomes harder and harder to amuse," said Racine. "I am to be at Mme. de Maintenon's room at 3 to see whether a page or two of the Phedre may not work a change. Madame is a wonderful woman. She has brains, she has heart, she has tact—she is admirable."

"And yet she has one gift too many—"

"Pooh! What matter her years when she can carry them like thirty? What an eye, what an arm! And, besides, my friends, he is not himself a boy any longer."

"Very true, but a young man consults his eye and an older man his ear. Over forty, it is the clever tongue which wins; under it, the pretty face."

"Ah, you rascal! Then you have made up your mind that five and forty years with tact will hold the field against nine and thirty with beauty. Well, when your lady has won she will doubtless remember who were the first to pay court to her."

"But I think you are wrong, Racine."

"Well, what then?"

"Then it may be a little serious for you."

"And why?"

"The Marquise de Montespan has a memory."

"Her memory may soon be nothing more. Maintenon is the cleverest woman in France."

"Pshaw, Racine, you know our dear master well, or you should, for you seem to have been at his elbow since the days of the Fronde. Is he a man, think you, to be amused forever by sermons? No, no; it will be the Montespan or, if not she, some younger beauty."

"My dear Boileau, I say again that her sun is setting. Have you not heard the news? Her brother, M. de Vivonne, has been refused the entry."

"From whom had you it?"

"From De Catinat, the captain of the guard. He had his orders to bar the way to him."

"Ha, then the king does indeed mean mischief. That is why his brow is so cloudy this morning then. By my faith, if the marquise has the spirit with which folk credit her, he may find that it was easier to win her than to sight her."

"Aye, the Mortemarts are no easy race to handle."

"Well, heaven send him a safe way out of it! But who is this gentleman? His face is somewhat grimmer than those to which the court is accustomed, Ha, the king catches sight of him, and Louvois beckons to him to advance."

The stranger who had attracted Racine's attention was a tall, thin man, with high aquiline nose, stern, fierce gray eyes, peering out from under tufted brows, and a countenance so lined and marked by age, care and stress of weather that it stood out amid the prime courtier faces which surrounded it as an old hawk might in a cage of birds of gay plumage.

Louis possessed in a high degree the royal faculty of recognition. "It is years since I have seen him, but I remember his face well," said he, turning to his minister. "It is he, the Comte de Frontenac, is it not?"

"Yes, sire," answered Louvois. "It is indeed Louis de Buade, comte de Frontenac and formerly governor of Canada."

"We are glad to see you once more at our court," said the monarch as the old nobleman stooped his head and kissed the white hand which was extended to him. "I hope that the cold of Canada has not chilled the warmth of your loyalty."

"Only death itself, sire, would be cold enough for that."

"Then I trust that it may remain to us for many long years. We would thank you for the care and pains which you have spent upon our province, and if we have recalled you it is chiefly that we would fain hear from your own lips how all things go there. And, first, as the affairs of God take precedence of those of France, how about the missions?"

"They prosper, sire. There are Iroquois at the Sault and the mountain, Hurons at Lorette and Algonquins along the whole river system from Ta-

Wisconsin Judge Decides Strikers
May Use Persuasion.

Milwaukee, Nov. 29.—Judge James J. Dick, of Beaver Dam, Wis., today handed down a decision that men may organize and form unions, and that such unions as a body may strike without the action being in conspiracy, and that strikers may use per-susion in an endeavor to prevent others taking their places of employment. The decision grew out of the hearing of a contempt of court case against A. C. Humphrey and three local unions charging them with ignoring an injunction order against interfering with non-union men employed by a local foundry.

THE THANKSGIVING IN PADUCAH

GIGANTIC MERGER SCHEME BLOCKED

By J. J. Hill, Great Magnate Says On Stand.

Tells About Gifts to Stockholders of Great Northern and Plans of Systems.

MADE UP OF SMALLER LINES

Thanksgiving was generally observed in Paducah yesterday. The spirit of a holiday was more apparent than for several years. The stores were closed by noon and the railroads and factories did not open at all.

The streets were quiet in the earlier part of the afternoon, the idea seeming to be to spend the day quietly at home. There were few attractions to draw the people out. A matinee performance at The Kentucky, the football game at the park with the services at the churches constituted the round.

At all the churches holding services liberal collections were taken up for the poor. At the Union Rescue Mission, ten families were supplied with generous baskets and all during the day many articles of clothing and other things were distributed from the door of the mission services were held at the mission last night but no collection was taken. Mr. and Mrs. Childs expressed their appreciation of donations from the public.

At the Home of the Friendless, the day was spent quietly in the home. A fine dinner was served and in the afternoon games, songs and recitations made the day enjoyable.

Colored Charity.

The colored Home of the Friendless association received many donations of food and clothing yesterday from both white and colored people, and sent out a special committee delivering the food and clothes to the needy. The president desires to publicly express appreciation and thanks to all who donated.

JESSE JAMES, JR. AS REFORMER

Son of Bandit, Urging Law Enforcement, Has Relative Fined.

Kansas City, Nov. 30.—Jesse James, Jr., a son of the famous outlaw of that name, was in police court today to prosecute his brother-in-law, Luther McGowan, for taking his horse without permission and misusing it. McGowan pleaded guilty and said he had been drinking.

"You are his brother-in-law; what do you want me to do with him?" Judge Kyle inquired of James.

"He ought to be fined; I believe in law enforcement," said James. Judge Kyle imposed a fine of $100, James was admitted to the bar a year ago.

To err is human—to lie about it is more human.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 30.—A colossal combination of all the railroads in the west, between the Canadian border and the Mexican line. This is the stupendous railway movement outlined by James J. Hill. And the movement was checkmated only by the refusal of one man to enter the combination. That man was himself.

Mr. Hill made this remarkable disclosure while testifying before the Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse Commission. Wrought up to a high pitch, he asserted and reiterated the honesty of his purposes in his great transactions, especially of the last few years, and thereby he made almost equally remarkable disclosure.

147 Per Cent. Dividends.

Stockholders of the Great Northern have received the equivalent of 147 per cent. in dividends during the past, being almost a free gift of Mr. Hill to his stockholders, inasmuch as he could have rightfully held that profit for his personal account.

During the past year the Great Northern admittedly has issued $25,000,000 in new stock. Holders of the $125,000,000 stock which was already out were allowed to absorb this new issue at par. Great Northern investors being allowed one share of the new stock for every five shares they already held.

During the year there was also issued by Mr. Hill $150,000,000 in stock of the Lake Superior company, which new company represented the holdings of iron ore which Mr. Hill had accumulated through a series of years. The Superior company stock was given to the Great Northern stockholders, share for share, thus equaling a dividend of 100 per cent.

"I could have accepted," he said, "the management of all the railroad lines in the west between the Canadian boundary and Mexico, but I refused that. I might continue in charge of my interests in the northwest and the development of this part of the country."

Mr. Young then asked as to the reasons for the Great Northern company being made up of so many smaller companies.

"We find it more advantageous," said Mr. Hill, "to have different corporations in different states. States, I have found, are sometimes anxious to get railroads and offer inducements for them to enter and build lines. And then as soon as they do, they do all in their power to tear them to pieces. Having different state corporations to a greater degree limits the influence of such undesirable action in its effect on the whole Great Northern company.
